May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ
enlighten the eyes of our mind,
so that we can see what hope his call holds for us. Alleluia!

Gospel

Mark 1: 40-45

A leper came to Jesus and pleaded on his knees: 'If you want to' he said 'you can cure me.' Feeling sorry for him, Jesus stretched out his hand and touched him. 'Of course I want to!' he said. 'Be cured!' And the leprosy left him at once and he was cured. Jesus immediately sent him away and sternly ordered him, 'Mind you say nothing to anyone, but go and show yourself to the priest, and make the offering for your healing prescribed by Moses as evidence of your recovery.' The man went away, but then started talking about it freely and telling the story everywhere, so that Jesus could no longer go openly into any town, but had to stay outside in places where nobody lived. Even so, people from all around would come to him.

Our prayers:

ST. MICHAEL THE ARCHANGEL PRAYER

"Saint Michael the Archangel, defend us in battle. Be our protection against the wickedness and snares of the devil; May God rebuke him, we humbly pray; And do thou, O Prince of the Heavenly Host, by the power of God, thrust into hell Satan and all evil spirits who wander through the world seeking the ruin of souls. Amen."

PRAYER OF ST. FRANCIS OF ASSISI:

"Lord, make me an instrument of your peace; where there is hatred, let me sow love; where there is injury, pardon; where there is discord, union; where there is doubt, faith; where there is despair, hope; where there is darkness, light; and where there is sadness, joy.

"O Divine Master, grant that I may not so much seek to be consoled, as to console; to be understood, as to understand; to be loved, as to love; for it is in giving that we receive, it is in pardoning that we are pardoned, and it is in dying that we are born to eternal life." Amen.

Prayer for vocations

Heavenly Father raise up holy vocations to the priesthood, to keep the faith alive and guard the memory of your Son Jesus, through the preaching of His word and the celebration of His Sacraments.

May Your Church sustain seminarians and priests in their vocations so that they may faithfully fulfil their mission at the service of the Gospel.

Retreat Master's Bio.

Fr. Piotr Krakowiak SAC (ordained in Poland 1993) works currently at the University in Torun in the Department of Philosophy and Social Sciences. He has a lengthy career in hospice-palliative care as a volunteer, chaplain, psychologist, volunteers' coordinator, managing director of Hospice and Founder of the Hospice Foundation Poland, before moving into full-time teaching. Author and editor of a series of 18 books regarding end of life care in Polish, English, Italian, Russian, Ukrainian, German and articles in peer-reviewed journals. His research interests focus on using mixed methods to explore end of life care in different settings, from social work through spirituality & bereavement, as well as various aspects of volunteering and community involvement. Living in Edinburgh, Scotland from 2016, he is currently the Parish Priest for the Scottish & Polish community, also studying the concept of Compassionate Communities in the UK (grief, loss and new forms of bereavement support), in order to involve Polish and East-European migrants in Scotland into those activities. Since the beginning of the full-scale war in Ukraine in 2022 he has been involved in supporting the Pallottine Center Future for Ukraine, where over 100 women and children find safe homes. In his Lenten reflection in Barbados he will share his rich experience of end-of-life care & bereavement and his experience from various countries where he has lived and worked as a Pallottine.

JOURNALING DURING LENT

Lent is a time of Spiritual Preparation and we are encouraged to go beyond our normal practices.

To this end, Fr. Kirt has prepared a Daily Journal with selected readings and guidance for reflections during Lent, for his parishioners at Our Lady of Sorrows and he has kindly made it accessible for anyone interested in walking this journey.

The cost of this journal is only $20.00, the proceeds of which will go towards Our Lady of Sorrows parish who is in need of our support.

The Journals will be available after each Mass.

Price: $20.00
