Metanoia

First reading: Isaiah 55:6-9

Responsorial Psalm: The Lord is close to all who call him.

Second reading: Reading from the letter of St. Paul to the Philippians 1:20-24,27

Gospel acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Blessings on the King who comes, in the name of the Lord!

Peace in heaven

and glory in the highest heavens!

Alleluia!

Gospel: Matthew 20:1-16

Jesus said to his disciples: 'The kingdom of heaven is like a landowner going out at daybreak to hire workers for his vineyard. He made an agreement with the workers for one denarius a day, and sent them to his vineyard. Going out at about the third hour he saw others standing idle in the market place and said to them, "You go to my vineyard too and I will give you a fair wage." So they went. At about the sixth hour and again at about the ninth hour, he went out and did the same. Then at about the eleventh hour he went out and found more men standing round, and he said to them, "Why have you been standing here idle all day?" "Because no one has hired us" they answered. He said to them, "You go into my vineyard too." In the evening, the owner of the vineyard said to his bailiff, "Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting with the last arrivals and ending with the first." So those who were hired at about the eleventh hour came forward and received one denarius each. When the first came, they expected to get more, but they too received one denarius each. They took it, but grumbled at the landowner. "The men who came last" they said "have done only one hour, and you have treated them the same as us, though we have done a heavy day's work in all the heat." He answered one of them and said, "My friend, I am not being unjust to you; did we not agree on one denarius? Take your earnings and go. I choose to pay the last comer as much as I pay you. Have I no right to do what I like with my own? Why be envious because I am generous?" Thus the last will be first, and the first, last.'

"The Celebration Of The Mass "

Excerpts from the session given by Msgr. Michael de Verteuil

"Great importance should be attached to the use of singing at Mass."

St. Augustine says rightly, "Singing is for one who loves." An ancient proverb: "One who sings well prays twice."

- Be on time (take time to focus) when attending Mass
- Fully, consciously actively participate
- Understand the meaning of the hymns they are singing
- Remember that they are not performing but worshipping and ministering
- Be respectful of one another, all worshippers and the priest
- Participate in learning experiences
- Be committed

We are a Catholic community committed to welcoming our brothers and sisters, celebrating the Eucharist, receiving the Sacraments, spreading the Good News, passing on our Catholic faith and Traditions, promoting devotion to Divine Mercy and assisting the poor and less privileged in our community. As the National Shrine of Divine Mercy we encourage fuller participation in the Divine Mercy devotions

National Shrine of Divine Mercy

We are commissioned to spread the Message of Divine Mercy to all. Please join us for Divine Mercy Devotion every Friday at 6.00 pm. All are welcome.
